“ Kitten ~ We had so much fun together growing up taking care of the dogs, playing blind man's bluff, getting hurt, getting over it, to do it again. We were never girly. It was just always an adventure being with you and I felt free. You were and always will be kitten to me. Yes, we got into a lot of trouble but looking back on it, it was a lot of fun. I will never forget those days. they are some of my fondest memories. Lisa

“ Lisa and I where really good friends in our early teens. I use to go home with her a lot. We would skate in the store and Sonny never got mad at us. Lisa my cousin Rachel , my sister Jennifer and I would all get together and play in the woods at my grandma's house. When we were growing up there was a Farrar Faucet shampoo, Lisa and I would only wash our hair in that shampoo. Helen used to say I don't know what I'm gonna do with you two. Helen was such a sweet lady. I know Lisa missed her so much. Now she is reunited with her Mom. I kinda lost touch with her until a few months ago I saw her in Foodlion we talked like we about bad decisions we had made in our life and how we had turned our lives around. I gave her a big hug and she gave me that smile that she always did years ago. Prayers for her family. She will truly be missed. Fly high my friend Let your soul shine. Love, Lena Rawlings Blair

“ My dearest and oldest friend..how do I begin? You stepped out of that '63 Ford in 1982 and into my life. We've giggled, cried, cussed, fought, made up, and spent 36 years together. You were always the first one to come to me if something happened. What will I do without you my love? Rest my sweet girl. Until we can giggle together again...LATER!!!

“ What a beautiful soul inside and out. Lisa made numerous visits to our home just to chit chat in our garage. We would laugh and reminisce about days past and school memories. The passing of Lisa's mom took a toll on her and it tore her world apart. I talked to her many times about this but Lisa kept going and was strong to never stop loving and living. Gosh how I'll miss her laughter and beautiful face. Heaven has gained a true angel !!!!! Until we meet again my friend RIP sweet lisa We'll miss you so much !!!!!
