

Louise Eades Johnson

April 11, 1947 - June 14, 2025

Louise Eades Johnson, 78, of 5910 Covered Bridge Road, Gladys died Saturday, June 14, 2025 at her home surrounded by loved ones. She was the wife of Travis Samuel Johnson for fifty-three years.

She was born April 11, 1947 in Altavista, a daughter of the late James Edward Eades and Martha Katherine Lindsey Eades. She attended Bethel Pentecostal Holiness Church and was a retired Inspector for BGF Industries.

She enjoyed spending time with her friends and family, shopping, and attending gospel and country music events.

She is survived by one son, Tracie Johnson and his wife, Lori of Gladys; one daughter, Crystal Johnson Roakes of Gladys; a sister-in-law and the best care taker, JoAnn Brown Eades of Gladys; three grandchildren, Madison Grace Roakes, Olivia Wrenn Johnson and Harper Sage Johnson; two special nieces, Angela Eades Shearer of Lynchburg and Kimberly Eades Mason of Brookneal; two great nieces, Katherine Chambers and Keri Ann Mason; and two great nephews, Ryan Irby and Nate Mason.

She was preceded in death by a brother, James Cary Eades.

A graveside service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, June 17, 2025 at Bethel Pentecostal Holiness Church Cemetery by the Rev. Bobby Brumfield.

The family will receive friends other times at the residence.

The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

Finch & Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista is in charge of arrangements.

I grew up knowing Louise. My fondest memory is watching her go around the curve on her yellow car. Now I don't remember if it was arias Runner or a Super Bee but I knew she loved it. The last time I saw her was at a fire department meal with Bo playing. She was a loving Mama Granny wife. Yall already knew that. The community witless mis her but her spirit will always be in your hearts. Prayers
