“ After reading about the passing of Mabel, I wanted to take this time to express my condolence to you for her loss. I also wanted to share a thought with you that comforted me when I lost a family member in death. The man Job in (Job 14:14) asks" If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?". Happily Jesus answers in (John 5:28,29)- Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life”
Imagine a resurrection back to life and right here on earth.--(Ps.37:29)-“The righteous themselves will possess the earth. And they will reside forever upon it”. Jesus in (John 5:28) was relaying a promise from his heavenly Father-(Jehovah-(Ps.83:18)) who at (Titus 1:2) says is a " God who can not lie" Well I hope that you will be able to draw some comfort from these scriptural thoughts as I did.

“ Mabel was a wonderful person and good friend. She was "old school" learned to work hard and respect others. I enjoyed knowing her. She and I worked together on 2nd shift for many years and as a new employee she befriended me and we became very close friends and co-workers. I can still smell your favorite Esteee Lauder perfume. May you rest in peace.
