This BEAUTIFUL woman passed Feb 3rd. She was the mother of 4 children and a 2nd mother to me. I spent more time at her house than my own from age 5 to 11 when we moved to Roanoke. She lost her baby Cindy to leukemia 50 years ago. I remember vividly watching her rock her suffering baby EVERY day and night for comfort. I had not then and still to this day witnessed sacrificial love like that. Cindy was a BEAUTIFUL baby and anyone who met her saw the bright light of Jesus, and was blessed. My dear sweet Mamie I know you are holding Cindy again in heaven now, and you are very happy. I am sorry I was ill and couldn't be at your service today but I too will look forward to reuniting with you and Cindy in heaven.

“ Thoughts and prayers for the family. Mamie was my BFF. She was more like a sister than a cousin. We took vacations each year together. Had lots of fun. Visited family and friends. I stopped by each week to visit her at home. Never be another Mamie! Rest in peace, sweet Mamie! You will be sadly missed!

“ I have very fond memories of the excitement when all of you would come to granny's or we come there. I can only imagine the excitement of Aunt Mamie being reunited with Cynthia and other loved ones. Aunt Mamie had a sweet and gentle way about her. God took another good one home. Love to all of you.
