November 8, 1916 - October 24, 2014

Marion Gladys Burnette DeGutis, "Grandmama from Georgia" or "Aunt Marion" died Friday, October 24, 2014, in Silsbee, Texas, at the age of 98. Marion, who was a quick-witted, feisty farm girl from Virginia, brought joy to her family and friends throughout her life. Her final months were spent peacefully and with little pain, and recently celebrated her 98th birthday with a Dr. Pepper (her favorite), cake, ice cream and many family members.

Marion was born on October 8, 1916, in Gladys, Virginia, to Otey Guster Burnette and Mary Hester Kessee Burnette ("Granny" and "Granddaddy"), and was the last surviving of their 12 children. She moved to Beaumont, Texas, in 2005 to be closer to Marie and her Texas family. Marion never met a stranger; a trait that she passed to her daughter, Marie.

Marion is survived by her daughter, Marie Broussard and her family; grandchildren, Dale Broussard of Nederland, Texas; Tom Broussard and his wife, Donna, of Lumberton, Texas; David Broussard and his wife, Toni, of Spring, Texas; and Marian West and her husband, Steve, of Carrollton, Texas; 12 great-grandchildren; 4 great-great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Viola Burnette and numerous nieces and nephews.

service will be 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, November 4, 2014, by the Rev. Brian Reynolds at Kedron Baptist Church Cemetery.
