“ Smitty, Jeff and Greg, I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. I was so happy to see her at Sam's Club, month's back. After talking with her, I was hoping I would be able to visit her soon. I feel very regretful that it didn't turn out this way. In the past, I remember your mother being very quiet and private, against your father, whom was very talkative. You all have been very blessed to have your mother for so many years. I hope you all will be able to start healing from her death. With Love, Cynthia Barbee Marsh, your third cousin and Joel Damion Harmon, your fifth cousin.

“ Greg, Smitty, and Jeff.

Our hearts are heavy to hear of Marjorie's death. Marjorie was a true friend to my mother and me. She was always sensitive to others' suffering and found creative ways to bring comfort... was unpretentious...a gentle soul. She was also very witty.

May your loss be eased knowing your mother left the world a better place than she found it.

“ Grandma, you were such an awesome woman. I already miss you so very much. Thank you for all the words of wisdom you shared with me over the years and even more once I became a wife and mother. Thank you for all of the handmade cards, letters, scarves, hats, sweaters and blankets you gave me over the years, I cherish them all so much. I love you and find comfort in knowing that you are with me everyday whispering words of wisdom and giving me laundry tips ;) I will always remember....when all else fails, go fold some laundry.
