“ Mark and I attended Ben L. Smith High School together. Mark always had a smile on his face and was kind to everyone. I really got to know Mark very well after attending a weekend school function, National Honor Society retreat. He and I were roommates for that weekend. It was at that time, I wondered "what in the world am I doing here?" Mark was so intelligent. I realized how lucky I was to be here with Mark. We talked about everything. Girls, hobbies, our future, and our religious beliefs. He just had a calming way about him. He was extremely modest and so humble. I left there that weekend a better person due to Mark's influence. For that I am thankful. Thanks buddy! I owe you. I texted Mark several weeks ago and he told me that the end was near. Oh had I known, I would have gone to see him. My heart is heavy right now because I wasn't able to make that visit. Lesson learned, love your family and friends. Don't let life get in the way of showing your feelings. Spend time with them, visit them and cherish every second with them. I love you brother! See you in heaven.

Mark will be sadly missed, but very fondly remembered. He was always ready to share a smile and words of encouragement with those around him. He was always concerned about other people and their needs. The smile on his face when he spoke about his children will always be engraved in our hearts.
