Martha "babysat" me when I was a young boy, and was like family to us. Some of my fondest memories of childhood took place in her house, where I was with my great friends Joey & Jamey. Words cannot express the sadness, nor express the wonderful memories. We'll miss you Martha. Much love to Joey, Jamey, and the entire family.

I am so sorry to learn that Martha has died. I met her when Courtney was in kindergarten at Rustburg Elementary School. Martha volunteered to help in my classroom. She was a wonderful helper and became a good friend. Her husband, James, made some furniture to use in the classroom. They were both so kind and helpful. Wonderful people.
