“ In looking at Finch & Finch's obituaries, this one stood out. During World War II, my parents lived in AltaVista, and my Dad worked at Lane (as did most everyone else, including me). I see that his mother was Grace Jenks Myers, and I remember visiting in that home when I was very, very small. If I am right, I think she and my father were first cousins, with her mother having been Janie (or Mary Jane) Cassidy Jenks; and my grandmother, Margaret Cassidy Kendrick, was her sister. They were daughters of Daniel and Mary Pribble Cassidy. So very sorry for your loss. --Melinda Kendrick Nichols
