

Matthew Calvin Layne

October 6, 1995 - March 20, 2016

Matthew Calvin Layne, 20, of 7870 Leesville Road, Lynch Station died Sunday, March 20, 2016 at his residence.

He was born October 6, 1995 in Lynchburg, a son of Ronald Layne and Sheryl Dowdy Layne of Lynch Station. He was a member of Mount Hermon United Methodist Church, a sales person and Master Technician with Batteries Plus Bulbs in Lynchburg. Matthew was a young man who had a contagious smile and encouraged everyone whom he came in contact with. His belief in God and humility enabled him to be someone others could trust and count on in their time of need, or to lend a listening ear. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, working on his Toyota truck and at Batteries Plus Bulbs. Matthew attended CVCC, was an Eagle Scout with Troop #278, a graduate of the Altavista High School Class of 2014, and a member of the state championship football team in 2013. He was loved and admired by his family, friends and co-workers.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a sister, Maegan Layne Mitchell and her husband Brandon of Bassett; maternal grandfather, John Calvin Dowdy of Lynch Station; paternal grandmother, Frances Hackworth Layne Graves and her husband C.P. of Huddlestone; his aunts and uncles, Don and Melinda Dowdy, Debbie and Donald "Uncle D" Thurman, and Donald "Uncle Buck" and Vickie Layne all of Lynch Station; best friend, Travis O'Neal of Lynch Station; and special friend, Amber Mellen of Lynchburg.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Katherine Adkins Dowdy; paternal grandfather, Calvin C. Layne; and maternal step-grandmother, Beatrice Dowdy.

A funeral service will be conducted at 11:00 a.m., Friday, March 25, 2016 at Mount Hermon United Methodist Church by the Rev. Bill Greer and Rev. Dawn Compton with interment to follow in the church cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 6:00 until 8:00 p.m., Thursday at Finch and Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista.

The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider local donations to Boy Scouts of America at <http://aplacetogive.scouting.org/>.

“ So sorry for your loss. It's hard to know what to say. Michael and Matthew were in kindergarten together. I remember Matthew with bright eyes and with big smiles. Michael and Matthew are almost the same age. If it was Michael who died, the loss would be great to me. And though I know where he would be, and though I would have faith and rejoicing..I would also have great sorrow.

I think of the words to Mary....a sword shall pierce through your heart. I've known that sword...and though I love the Lord and though I want to please him in all things, that sword pierced to a place of weeping I had never known. I wept. I'm not one to cry, I wept.

I could not talk. Even when I wanted to say something, I could not. I could not stop the tears. Usually, one can put a face on. I could not. The face would not go on. I couldn't put it on, I wept. I just wept.

I had places I had to go..but, I couldn't stop weeping...yet, I had to go. I remember walking in Lowes and people looking at me. They were not staring, it was like some unspoken understanding transpired between us. I knew they knew I was in deep grief. I wanted to say it's okay, but I couldn't get words of of my mouth. I just would look at them and without words say I'm okay. I walked and wept. A wound so deep.

Recently, we hiked from Sunset Field to Apple Orchard Mountain where the FAA Radar Dome is. We were hiking northbound up the mountain. We had hiked a ways and I was wondering how close we were to the summit. I kept trying to see the FAA Radar Dome, but I could not see it. I kept wondering how much further we had to go. I wondered where is the dome.

We kept walking. And walking. Then I caught a glimpse of the dome. I knew we were getting close. As we walked, I could barely make out the dome through the trees. The view was really obscured. Vaguely, I could make out the dome faintly through the trees. My excitement quickened.

We walked a little further, and made a turn which came into an opening going up the summit with the FAA Radar Dome clearly in sight! We had made it. Though the dome had been obscured almost until the end, it finally came into full view.

We recently hiked from Thunder Ridge Overlook to Apple Orchard Mountain. This time the dome was in view for a long while from the trail before we reached the summit.

I could walk and see the dome clearly whereas before we had to walk with the dome obscured from view until we almost summited.

I am reminded of what Paul said, how that we now know in part, and sometimes we see dimly, like the obscured view of the radar dome, but we shall know fully in time to come.

Matt's summit was more like our first hike. His summit was obscured from view until the last few steps. I rejoice that he completed his summit. He run his race. He finished his course. He did well.

I like a song sung by Demis Roussos, "Race to the End". We are admonished from the Lord to run to obtain the prize. Matt ran. He obtained the prize. We still run.

May the Lord strengthen and bless you.

“ Today's service was beautiful. Maegan, your words were perfect. I knew Matthew as his sweet little kindergarten self, and now because of you, I feel as if I knew who he became. Seeing your family, feeling your strength, hearing your words and how you were able to express Matthews faith and views on life was so touching.

I'll pray for you and your family that you will find peace and continued strength.

Love to you all. 🌹

Matthew there is a hole in my heart with this loss. You were always there just to hang out or help with anything in the garage. The world will not be the same without you. i will miss your smile and your laughter in my house. Don and I will miss going to Waffle House with you and hanging out watching movies and playing video games. The world lost a great young man but Heaven gained a great angel. He was the only scout in the troop at the time but provided the leadership Josiah and Noah needed during their introduction and journey in Scouts. Mathew, of course, continued to lead the way under his dad's leadership and became an Eagle Scout, as he knew he would. Now, Josiah has achieved the rank of Eagle and Noah has started his project. Just as Philip Popek predicted. Thank you, Mathew! For your friendship to my boys, to me, to Travis, and for your character. You are truly an Eagle Scout. To all who read this be encouraged with Isaiah 40:31, "Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles."*

“ Dear Ronald, Sheryl & Maegan and all the extended family, All I can say is how sorry I am for you and the unimaginable pain you are feeling. My prayers are with you and hope that you can take comfort in knowing how much we all loved Matthew. His smile was the first thing to greet you and his tenderness stayed with you when you left him. He was a great and pleasant young man and even as a kid, I know you always knew he'd grow to do mighty things in his life. Well he accomplished that quicker than most.....he influenced EVERYONE he met. I will NEVER forget that "Matthew" smile!!

“ I am completely heartbroken for your family. Matthew carries a very special place in my heart. I taught him during his kindergarten year....I can remember his sweet face as if it were yesterday. He was so special to me. I loved having him walk in the classroom each morning with his big bright smile which took over his whole face. His beautiful eyes would scrunch up into tiny slits from his big grin....I wondered if he could see sometimes!!!! He had the kindest heart and would play with all the children...he had such a free spirit. He was athletic and imaginative, creative and smart. He was loving and compassionate, agreeable and fun. He was everything you wanted in a student and in a child. On the last day of school I can remember having to say goodbye to Matthew, this child who had brought me so much happiness all year, and I cried so hard. I want to thank your family for sharing Matthews life with me all those years ago. I remembered him all along. How could you ever forget someone with such a bright spirit?

I am so sorry for your heartache and heartbreak. You are truly in my thoughts.
