“ She was a fabulous Lady. I loved her she came and seen me almost every Thursday to tell me how to do her hair,how to cut it or stop cutting in places. LoL. But we shared a lot of stories together and great memories and she always talked about her boys and Daughter-n-law and of course her cat 🐱. She had so much compassion for animals. She will deeply be missed by many and by me. Go rest now and no more worries Maxine. Sending Prayers to her boys and God Bless them. Thank you and take care guys and be strong and just keep being the boys she always talked about. She was proud of you both. Love and miss you Maxine your hair dresser and your friend Loretta
