“ My condolences to Aunt Mildred's family. I have fond memories of her and her family; especially from my youth and childhood, which extended to when I saw her last several years ago. When I saw her that last time she asked "How's my little Chad". This title was given to me because Aunt Mildred would help my mom (Anna) take care of me while my dad served in the Navy during World War II.

*In Loving memory to Aunt Mildred and to her family, my cousins.

“ Aunt Mildred is my mom's (Anna) little sister. What I remember most as a young child is coming into the Kitchen while Mom and Aunt Mildred were preparing a meal, just laughing and giggling about some shared young girl memories. On our many family vacations to Virginia, Mom and Dad would ask us kids where we wanted to go first... It was always the Roach's house. Aunt Mildred and her daughters and sons were always very kind to me. I'll always reflect on those Childhood visits to Virginia with love and great joy. Thanks Aunt Mildred, I'm glad you are my mom's sister... Love always, Dan Morris

“ Visits to Virginia especially to Aunt Mildred's home and family. She and her family always were happy to see us come; and we were in for a treat - always a great meal and when we were expected her Blackberry roll (cobbler) Her quilts have love sewed into every stitch. Thanks for the memories and as she always said "youall come see me soon." Our condolences to her children, our cousins. God bless you and thanks for the memories. from her sister Anna and Eugene Morris family - MaryElaineMorrisCall
