“ My deepest sympathy to you Helen and your family. Your mom was a great neighbor and friend to my family. She had great patience, gentleness, caring, and warmth that she share freely with everyone. Her yard was always a masterpiece for the neighbors to enjoy year after year. Her cooking was beyond belief. My brother Randy so loved her chocolate pound cake. She was living angel who blessed my life in so many ways. I know that she is enjoying herself with all her family and the rest of the neighbors. God certainly gave her a warm welcome when she entered the gates of Heaven. We shall miss her terribly.
