“ Dear Mr. Eugene, Kim, Tony and Family, I was so sorry to hear of Miss Myrtle's passing. I think I've known her my entire life and for so many years as a younger girl I thought she was part of the family because anywhere you saw Aunt Etta, no matter on a bank fishing, or in church or helping a family in need with food or whateverthey were together...and boy were they competitive!!! But, that made her ...her! God Blessed her with a full and enjoyable life.....and she was a great person with a big heart. I know she will be missed. My sincerest thoughts to you all.
