“ It's hard to imagine navigating a world without precious Nan. I guess you could say she was love, compassion and empathy defined. She was ever hopeful when hope was hard to find, she had compassion for others even when suffering mightily with her own afflictions and she somehow was able to muster an incredible inner strength that moved her to bring comfort, to speak words of healing and to give aid when and where it was needed, through a deep and merciful love for all God's creatures. With Nan, I always got the impressioin that her friends were family also. I've never met, in my lifetime, a more able conduit of the full depth of God's love and mercy. Thank you my precious cousin, for showing us the way. I will always love you. -- David Hill

“ Nan and I met and became lifelong friends at UNC-G on campus at the Baptist Student Union. Her family were so gracious to me and her other campus friends and opened their home as a safe haven for gatherings. Nan had great compassion for others and like her mom possessed the gift of hospitality. She had great faith and loved the Lord. It is with this knowledge that gives me great comfort to know she is with Him in heaven. I send my love and prayers for Mary, Jayne and Phil and Mrs. Dot for comfort and peace. Thank you, Nan for your cherished friendship. Our memories of fun and laughter will live on forever.
