“ So sorry to learn of Perry's passing. He was always so kind to let me walk thru his home which was previously my grandparents place whenever I happened by over the years. I always thought my granddad would've loved what he'd done with the place. Thoughts and prayers for his family and friends.

“ Kenric & family, Lana & family, our hearts are heavy and our souls weep for the loss of Perry. We have so many memories ...I watched him grown up as one of our Connie's companions/ cohorts in neighborhood pranks, fun and constant games outdoors...the times he shared meals with us, saying "Mama, can I eat at Nannie's?"....the many times he would ask Daddy, "Coleman, are you rich yet?"...for Daddy had promised him he would give him money when he became rich....his constant teasing of Mama (her age, how, in his opinion, she gave Daddy a hard time, etc. etc.)...the memories go on and on....yes, Perry, "son", we will miss you...your unique laugh, your teasing, your opinions on many subjects... How can we say goodbye???? God rest your soul!
