“ To Juana and family, may God strengthen you during this time. Ralph and I use to hangout together while he lived in Stamford, Ct. years ago. He was a good-hearted man. I spoke and prayed for him earlier this year. Made him laugh and cheered him up. I will never forget Ralph and Judy, really good people. Rest In Peace my brother.

“ So sorry to hear about Raphael. We thought the world of him and Judith. They were good friends. He was a kind gentle soul and will be missed by all who knew him. It has been a pleasure to meet his daughter Juana and tell her stories about the fun and struggles we experienced with him. Again, so sorry for your loss!!

“ So sorry to hear of Raphael's passing. He was a very caring man, who quietly went about doing for others without anyone knowing. It was a joy being around his dry, but unique sense of humor. He will be missed by all those that knew him!
