“ I was best friends with Rebecca from Kindergarten through the 10th grade when we moved away. I have many great memories of spending time at Rebecca's house. Even though time and distance made it difficult to stay in touch I will miss her greatly.

“ Love you and missing you. I cannot believe last Saturday would be the last day I'd be stirring up one of your cold oven pound cakes for you. I will miss you so much and I'll always remember all the good recipes of yours you shared with me that you wouldn't share with others. Becky , I'll always remember the conversations we had through the years I've been seeing you on a daily basis. Thank you for all the memories and especially the nice things you gave me through the years. I'll treasure everything forever but most of all , I will treasure the memories. Rest in peace sweet sister, I always told you that you were like a sister to me. I love you Becky.

“ Our prayers are with all of those who loved Rebecca, and that is many. While those hearts are empty at her passing, the Lord's Heavenly Choir is surely filled with her blessed presence. Bro. Wayne, rest in the knowledge and comfort that as Rebecca's wonderful husband you were there for her every need and you all made one another's lives much richer here on earth. Until we are reunited---

“ Where to begin? Sister Rebecca was such a beautiful lady and certainly had the most beautiful voice and could play the piano so, so beautifully. We first met Rebecca, when her and Brother Wayne were still newlyweds.

She was at our wedding, 21 yrs. ago this summer. She had such poise and grace and was simply a beautiful christian lady. She will be greatly missed. Brother Wayne, we love you dearly and we are praying for God to be with you in a way that only He can. You will make it through this Brother, God made a promise and He will not leave you, nor will He forsake you. We know your heart is broken, but we do indeed rejoice with you that your beautiful wife is now singing with the angels in Heaven and there will be a sweet reunion day, one day with her, and your sweet Mother and so many others that have gone on before. We are holding you close in our prayers Brother Wayne. We pray for you, all of the family and all of the church family and friends, as this is truly a great, great loss. And as I repeat so many times, since the loss of my dear Dad and Mom, "I've got more to go to Heaven for, than I had yesterday". And so do you!! We love you all Brother Wayne, God be with you!
