

Reginald Maurice Brown, Jr.

December 29, 1999 - January 29, 2014

Reginald Maurice Brown, Jr., 14, of Lynchburg departed this life on Wednesday, January 29, 2014 at UVA Medical Center after a courageous battle with Muscular Dystrophy.

RJ was a student at Sandusky Middle School and enjoyed music, fun and friendship.

He was born December 29, 1999 in Lynchburg, and leaves behind to cherish his memory, mother, Kelly R. Roberts, of Lynchburg, and father, Reginald M. Brown, Sr. of Greensboro, North Carolina.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Elijah Brown and Marco Bowen; maternal grandparents, Donald Roberts and Debra Rice; paternal grandparents, Robert and Delois Hunt; great grandmother, Virginia Cook; aunts, Holly Rees (Brad), Keasha Hunt, Robin Crenshaw (Laurel); uncles, B.J. Hunt, Juan Brown, Kevin Woods and many cousins and countless individuals that touched and were touched by his life.

He was preceded in death by a grandmother, Shirley Brown.

A celebration of RJ's life will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, February 8, 2014 at Finch and Finch Chapel, Altavista by the Rev. Ike Monroe and Donald Roberts.

The family will receive friends before the service from 12-2:00 p.m., Saturday at Finch and Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider The Muscular Dystrophy Association (M.D.A.) in RJ's honor, Professional Park One, 4502 Starkey Road #107, Roanoke, VA 24018.

“ I know i didnt come around like i shouldve, i wish i had gotten to know you better! What little i do know is that no matter how hard things were, you smiled and it was contagious! I also know that you have a beautiful and memorable soul, rest in peace, no longer in pain but tucked safely in our hearts! Give my sis a kiss for me!

I had the honor to grow up with Rj and I will forever miss him. He was not only my brother but my best friend. I knew when I was sad he was there to talk to and when I was happy someone who I could laugh with.
