“ To Ricky's Family, I was out of town last week and was shocked to be reminded that a loved one can leave us so quickly, but I want to share that he was a friend to me and in fact all of Hurt. I was on the Council when we hired Ricky. I attended his graduation from the Police Academy with Mayor Pete Daniel where Ricky excelled and it wasn't long before he became our Chief. Pete was really proud of him and talked about his running for Sheriff. Ricky created a children's ID program among other things but most of all he went about the Town making new friends (my husband Gordon included) and befriending those who needed help. Even after moving on to a new job, he readily offered advice, support, and assistance to me as Mayor and he remained a friend of my family. It has been said many times but it bears repeating: The Town of Hurt, Pittsylvania County, Commonwealth of Virginia and our Nation have lost an outstanding Citizen. You have my deepest sympathy for your loss.

“ Ricky was my first "childhood" friend playmate. He lived two doors down from me on Lynn Street in Hurt until his family moved to Spring street. He is the first friend I had as a child. We used to play outside in the yard and played with my barbie dolls. Sometimes we even played "streeker barbies" and this I think drive my mother crazy...lol. We went to high school together and graduated Gretna together. I used to see Ricky from time to time and the last couple of years when I went to Wal-Mart. The last time I saw him was at Wal-Mart somewhere around Christmas time and me and my husband was talking to him about his drone and photos he had taken with it. He was always smiling and a very happy person and very well liked and loved by many. I feel honored that I knew him. I am so sorry for your great loss. His passing is such a shock to everyone and I know especially his family. You are not alone greiving for him as the community is greiving also. Ricky is still with you all in spirit though I know it is not the same as having him here with you. He loved you all so much and remember all of the happy times. I really enjoyed seeing his posts on facebook about his daughters and wife. He was so proud of his daughters and of course smiling in all of his photos. Bless you all and my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ It is with great sorrow I learned of Ricky's passing and at such a young stage of his life. I had the Honor and Privilege to serve with Ricky in the 203d RED HORSE Sq. in Va. Beach. He along with his "sidekick" Karl Mercer made up one of the finest security teams belonging to the Unit. His dedication to his profession of arms was without bounds. He is responsible in part for the training of all the members in the use of our weapons and provided many a tip on how to improve our shooting and security. His efforts greatly contributed to the Unit's outstanding rating. He was always kind to all and brought many a smile and laugh to us with his humor and quick wit. Being from Danville at the time, we often shared tales of the area. He was a great husband, father and airman and is a model of what is good on this earth. I know he will be greatly missed, but we will live on remembering his many strengths and humor. God Bless you my brother and God Bless your family.

“ To lose an air-soldier like Ricky Moorefield, who was a member of my command during Desert Storm/Shield, is like losing a son. And of course, no one wants for the son to die first. Ricky was one of those unsung heroes of the great American Republic who put aside his normal life and family when the War Tocsin sounded, took on the cloak of a warrior and responded like the warrior he was to meet certain danger and the unknown for his country. And trust me when I say in the first few days it was precarious not knowing when, how and which way we might have had to retrograde if the Iraqi Tank Army were to attack in force; for it was only we few and the partial and lightly armed 101 Airborne Division between them and the Kuwait border.

However, just knowing that I had highly trained air-soldiers, like Sergeant Moorefield, who could always be counted on to do the right thing at the right time when ordered greatly alleviated the anxiety of the moment. Further and importantly it was comforting knowing Ricky could always be counted upon to step in and lead if and when it was required. I think now of He and them in the words of Shakespeare's Henry V: We few, we proud few; we band of brothers and sisters! To the family, I can say without hesitation that Ricky was the kind of man others looked up to and easily followed when the chips were down and to me he was a hero among the many I had in my command during those fateful days. I know my words cannot begin to assuage your broken hearts but may they be of some bit of consolation in your time of grief and despondency. May you and your family be immensely proud of him always letting his grandchildren and their children know of their hero grandfather. May GOD bless you all, take Sergeant Moorefield in to his loving arms and place him among his American Republic's Warrior Heroes to rest until the eventual awaking occurs.

Attention on Deck! In slow time: HAND SALUTE!

“ Ricky was a very dear to a lot of people...those he hung out with in his younger days, those he hung out with in his later years, those he protected for years, those that he helped in a lot of ways, and those he hung out with in some of his training at Virginia Beach years ago. Ricky meant a lot to a lot of people...once you met Ricky you never forgot him...he was funny, hilarious, serious, loved to act crazy, and just be Ricky...I will never forget the fun times we all had at Virginia Beach...a bunch of us went down there to hang out with him after he got out of some training that he had to go for. He was always respectable, fun, and one thing about him that most everyone can say is that he took his police job serious and he protected beyond belief. Ricky you were and still a wonderful friend. I am just glad that I had the opportunity to meet you and enjoy hanging out with you and the crowd that you always drew years ago...we all had a lot of decent fun, which is something that is not heard of today...GOD BLESS HIS FAMILY, and RIP to a wonderful friend. We've been neighbors of Ricky & Ellen for the past 17 years and have had the pleasure of seeing those 2 beautiful young girls grow up. Our community has lost a wonderful person but Heaven has indeed gained an angel.

Also to his father and mother who were like my own father and mother at one time. No matter what has taken place in life I've never forgotten the things they did for me. In all the years that I knew him I never heard anyone have nothing but good words for him, to me that speaks to the quality character that he possessed. “ Ellen, Mason, and Ellery.....my heart is breaking for you all right now. I am still in disbelief. Ricky was honestly one of the most kind men I have ever known. Even though he and I didn't talk now as much as we did in the past, I have always loved him. He always held a special place in my heart. The fact that he spent the entire day with Chuck in the hospital the day his dad was critical, showed the type of man he was....the type of friend he was. He will leave a void in so many peoples lives. I know he is reunited with his son now and will be looking over all 3 of you.....Prayers for peace and comfort in the days ahead ~ Kim

“ I taught Ricky in the 8th grade and saw that he was a compassionate and friendly guy then. Through the years since, Ricky has always had a smile or hug whenever I saw him. He always wanted to know how I was and hoped I could teach his daughters. I had the pleasure of teaching both of his daughters and always could see their daddy in them. The Moorefield family is very special to me for all the talks, laughs, smiles, and genuine friendship we have had. May God bless Ellen, Mason, Ellery, and all the other family members during this time and in the days to come. Love all of you,

“ In life we have people that come and go. Some make an impact on us forever. Ricky was that person for me. Back when I did the books for the Minute Market and he was a police officer he would come in from time to time. He would joke and laugh with us and tell us all these funny police stories. Even after I left that job, every time I saw Ricky he always stopped and talked and had a hug for me. He always talked about his wife and girls and bragged on all their accomplishments. I was in total shock when I heard the news. This area lost a wonderful man. He loved his wife, his girls, his brother and his parents with all that he had. Keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers. Ricky, until we meet again.....

“ So many great memories! The one that stands out the most is one morning when Ricky, Bobby (my brother), and I were on the way to school, a tractor trailer completely ran us off the road...always being a protector and like another brother, Ricky dropped me off at school and he and Bobby took off after the truck. Lol. I'm so glad they didn't find him. RIP Ricky. Sending love and prayers to the family. He was loved by so many but will be missed most by you all.
