

Ronald Calvin Clay

June 13, 1939 - January 2, 2022

Ronald Calvin Clay, 82, of 1156 Easome Road, Hurt died Sunday, January 2, 2022 at Runk and Pratt of Forest. He was the husband of Margaret Barker Clay for fifty-six years.

He was born June 13, 1939 in Altavista, a son of the late Raymond John Clay and Montia Farmer Clay. He was a U.S. Army veteran and retired from First National Bank of Altavista. Ronald enjoyed woodworking, photography, gardening, bee keeping and a variety of other interests, including a long time membership of the Lions Club.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, Steven Leslie Clay (Sherry) and David Andrew Clay (Heidi) all of Evington; a brother, Karl Jackson Clay (Kathy) of Hurt; a sister, Gloria C. Caudle of Advance, NC; and three grandchildren, Gabrielle Ferguson (Daniel), Andrew Clay (Dalana), and Jackson Clay.

A graveside service will be conducted at 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 5, 2022 at Summersett Baptist Church Cemetery by the Rev. Jason Andrews.

The family will receive friends following the service and other times at the residence.

For those wishing to visit with Ronald, you may visit from noon until 9:00 p.m. Tuesday at Finch and Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista.

The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider the National Center for Healthy Veterans, 980 Wards Rd., Altavista, VA 24517.

“ Margaret and family,

I was sorry to hear of the death of your husband. I don't know if you remember me or not, but we worked together at Tyler Flower shop from 1973-1978. My oldest brother text me this morning and told me about your husband. I now live in S.C. Sorry I can't be there for the visitation.
