

Ronald Wade "Tim" McDaniel

August 18, 1964 - January 30, 2025

Ronald "Tim" Wade McDaniel of Hurt, Virginia passed away with loved ones by his side at Piney Forest Health and Rehab in Danville, Virginia. He was born in Lynchburg, Virginia on August 18, 1964 to the late Claude Andrew McDaniel and late Shirley Hall McDaniel.

He leaves behind his wife, Julie, of the home; his daughter, Ashley Smith and her husband, Alan and their daughter Aubrey of Concord; a bonus daughter, Jeni Strickland and her sons, Jase and Gatlin of Randleman, North Carolina; a bonus son, Jackson McLeod of Oak Ridge, North Carolina along with his sister, Angie McDaniel of Hurt, brother, Robert McDaniel of Altavista and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and "best buddies"

Tim retired from BGF Industries, Inc. as a supervisor after 40 years. Some of his favorite past times were tinkering with his David Bradley tractor or antique plows or ATVs. During many weekends you could find him enjoying one of the many Cruise-Ins found in Virginia to view the many types of restored vehicles while hanging out with friends. Other times, Tim spent time traveling with Julie to see the beautiful sights that our country has to offer while listening to country music in their MX-5.

A very special "Thank you" to the people at UVA in the Transplant and ICU areas, who spent countless hours getting to know Tim and helping him through his days, as well as Piney Forest Health and Rehab and Mountain Valley Hospice who were very thoughtful and caring with Tim.

A memorial service will be conducted at 3:00 p.m., Sunday, February 2, 2025 at Finch & Finch Chapel, Altavista by the Rev. Jason Andrews.

The family will receive friends an hour prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers, please remember Tim with a contribution to any of the establishments listed above.
