“ Daddy my heart is hurting that your gone but I'm happy your in peace no more pain no more hurting no more tears no more meds.,it was a honor and a privilege to be your daughter and your caretaker these last few mths, if I could I would have taken your place and I would have had the stroke and passed away. You were so good to me I feel like I've lost my one and only friend, you are my back bone, I feel so lost without you. But it would be selfish of me to have you here in earth because I don't want to let you go, you are not in pain and that is most important of all. I will see you again and I got your message you sent from the heavens last evening and heard your voice message sent from,the heavens to in spirit. I love you and will never stopover over you. Love you always daddy.
