

Ryan Hockaday

March 18, 1980 - August 14, 2010

Ryan Young Hockaday, 30, formerly of Hurt, passed away Saturday, August 14, 2010 at Lynchburg General Hospital. Ryan is survived by his parents, Jane M Hockaday of Lynchburg and Golden Hockaday, Jr., of Hurt; brother, David Hockaday and fiancé Christy Benedict of Lynchburg; sister, Kay H. Rice and husband Jason Rice and their son, Dillon Ryan of Gladys; aunt, Kay Miller and her husband Craig Urbanowicz and cousin Janie of Charlotte, NC; aunt, Sandra Gosselin of Stroudsburg, PA. and uncle, Richard Hockaday of Hurt. Ryan shared a very special bond with his parents and siblings. They assisted him with his love of golf, football, music and water. He was also an animal lover and particularly loved his pets. Joanne Brumsey, supported him for many years and held a special place in his heart. Throughout his life he drew people in with his sly smile, sense of humor and heart-warming hugs. His fierce independence and strong desire to make his own decisions was ever present. He will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him. After attending Pittsylvania County Public Schools and graduating from Gretna High School, Ryan was employed at Lynchburg Sheltered Industries as an assembler for eight years. He was also an active member of the Challenged Sports Exchange in Lynchburg, and a long-time member of Hurt United Methodist Church.
