

Sabra Tuck Plymale

April 14, 1923 - April 9, 2013

Sabra Tuck Plymale, 89, of Altavista died Tuesday, April 9, 2013 at Autumn Care of Altavista. She was the wife of the late Ray Bennett Plymale for over fifty-two years.

She was born April 14, 1923 in Bedford County, a daughter of the late Otho Tuck and Bertha Franklin Tuck. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Altavista and a retired employee of the former Piedmont Manufacturing. Sabra loved and enjoyed spending time with her family and friends while enjoying a "good laugh".

She is survived by a son, William "Bill" O. Plymale and his wife Patricia L. Rodgers of Blacksburg; a daughter, June P. Rollins and her husband Rev. Robert W. Rollins, Jr. of Murphy, North Carolina; two brothers, John Tuck and his wife Ann of Altavista and Harold Tuck and his wife Gloria of Bedford.

A funeral service will be conducted at 3:00 p.m., Thursday April 11, 2013 at Finch and Finch Chapel, Altavista by the Rev. Melvin Harris with interment to follow in Altavista Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service starting at 2 p.m., Thursday at Finch and Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista.

The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider Altavista EMS, P.O. Box 1, Altavista, VA 24517.

“ *Billy and June,
I live in Kansas and don't get the news very quickly. I am so sorry to learn of the loss of your mother. No matter what our age, it hurts so deeply to lose a parent. My heart goes out to you and I pray that your memories will bring comfort. May God hold you in his warm embrace as you journey through grief. I know that Randy welcomed your mom to God's heavenly space.
