Sammy Robertson, the giver of big bear hugs, honest advice even if it cut, and the best big man a person could love. He would bend over backwards 20 million times for a person he loved, especially his beautiful wife and only daughter. May we always remember his strong bounding voice, powerful presence, characteristic nicknames, and a love that never questioned. He was there for his loved ones throughout life, now may we support and embrace his passing with comfort. Say his name everyday, always remember the good times, and know this is how he would want us to move forward. Love you Daddy, bigger than the universe, I beat!

“ Pam, Terry, Pat, Becky and families,
I am very sad to hear of Sammy's passing. I have many cherished childhood memories of time spent with him and all of my cousins. We went swimming in the creek and lake, rode bikes down the long driveway of their home place in Narrows, and shared many wonderful meals at our grandparents river side home. Please know that all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Much love, Connie McCall
