He was born September 18, 1967 in Lynchburg, a son of Margaret Nethercutt and the late Samuel Grey Stone, Sr. Samuel was a devoted member of Thomas Road Baptist Church and the Moose Lodge, where he especially enjoyed playing pool with friends. He had a love for roller skating, biking, and took great pride in keeping his cars spotless. Above all, he cherished the time spent with his family and friends who brought joy to his life.

He is survived by his mother, Margaret Nethercutt and her boyfriend, Graham Seamster; aunts and uncles, Walter Ray Stone (JoAnn), James Morgan Stone, James Gordon Booth (Barbara), Carrie Mae Gallagher; and by many beloved cousins and co-workers, as well as two dear friends who held a special place in his life, Lori Watts and Todd Martin.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Monday, September 22, 2025 at Finch & Finch Chapel, Altavista by the Rev. Shelton Miles with interment to follow in Straightstone Baptist Church Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 6:00 until 7:30 p.m., Sunday at Finch & Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista.

The family kindly requests that those attending dress in casual attire, as Samuel would have wanted friends and loved ones to feel comfortable.

“ Me and Sammy were great friends back in the cruising Wards Rd days and one night I left my truck in Lynchburg to stay at Sammy's and Kent's place around 11pm or a little later I was laying on the couch when Sammy came running through the living room fixing himself some food in a brown bag and out the door he went I was yelling at him because he was my ride home from Rustburg So about 30 minutes or so he came back through the door and said he woke up seen the clock and thought he was late for work LOL 😂 not including the fact it was a Saturday night 😂😂 just one of many funny tales we got into Just to say Sammy and Mark Hill were my best friends were you seen one of us the other wasn't far away I'll definitely miss Sammy even though I hadn't seen him in quite a few years but did talk to him on facebook regularly One of my best friends He was definitely loved by us all That's for sure

“ Sam and I worked together at J. Crew about twenty five years ago for just a few months, but he was unforgettable. His sense of humor almost made the work bearable. I would run into him from time to time and we would laugh and laugh like we never missed a beat. I had the pleasure of running into him about a year ago and had the best time reminiscing. His last text to me was “What’s up, fool?” Prayers and my deepest condolences for all of those who Sam touched and left behind. Rejoicing for his soul and looking forward to when he and I can laugh together again.
