“ Kaye was the funniest aunt a girl could have we would laugh and drive granny Lou absolutely crazy. We grew apart over time and as I grew up and moved to NC but through everything she was always one of the women who helped me become the person I am today. I only hope she knows how much I love her and appreciate everything she is. While this year I am sure Kaye, Patty and Daddy are still driving granny crazy but I can imagine it is the best Christmas they have ever seen or had. Love goes to Michelle and Ayden as they celebrate Christmas. Love Angela

“ To the family of Kaye. I knew Kaye as a young girl and teenager. She was very sweet, shy and pretty. Kaye's mom and dad loved each of their children and always seemed to be so close as a family. I am sorry that you have lost her. However, I believe that God has a special place for people like Kaye. May she rest in peace and enjoy being reunited with her earthly family.

God bless and comfort each of you.
