“ Irene was always a wonderful person to talk with - very kind and encouraging. I have many fond memories of times we talked when we both attended Central Baptist services. My husband and I worked with the youth at that time and at times really needed her encouragement. Thoughts and prayers Carol Brown Willis

Mrs Guill was such a dear lady. I met her through our church and I enjoyed her company tremendously and the little notes she would send....of course I am wishing I had spent more time with her recently, but I know where she is and I truly hope to see her again some day! Prayers for the family.
