“ Kim and family, I remember seeing your mom and dad at Central Baptist when I was a teenager. They always treated people with respect and were two of the finest people I have ever had the pleasure to know. I heard my mom speak highly of Your mom and dad in the last few years of her life. Rest in knowing your mom and dad are together in heaven and both have new bodies in Christ. You and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers in the coming days. Rest in peace. Mrs. Arthur.

“ Mom you are at peace with Dad... I did my best honoring your wishes until the end.. I do not regret one moment of the times and struggles we had during your battle and you set the example for everyone never complaining about your dialysis fighting to the very end.... If I had the chance to walk the path again I would do so without hesitation just to spend another moment with you ...

Mom reunite with Dad and dance day and night fly high as you both earned your wings.

My days will be void without you and your humor and I shall look forward to the day you open your arms to me as I meet you again .. I love you mom and I cherish every memory we shared
