“ Rest in peace Shirley. I didn't know you for long but I know that you were an amazingly strong woman and that I admired you. Glory to you in your new life in heaven. Danny and Jr., my heart goes out to you and your family. Be strong, like your mamma was and you will get through this, and in time you will see her again. I know that she loved you two and was proud of you, even when you were trying her patience. Never forget that.

“ *Tear drops run down our face
While our loved one takes her place
In the land of dreams and faith
She waits for the day when life will wake*

*The sun will rise and the clouds will clear
Her smile we show she is near
We'll feel her strength when a new day is here
And her heart when it's too hard to bare*

*My angel is one with the bluest eyes
The honest voice and generous spirit
Her love is there whenever we need it
All we have to do is believe it*

*She may be gone but that doesn't change
The way she makes us feel everyday
When the wind blows by and the trees shake
We hear every word she makes*

*No matter where we go
She will be there
Always willing to show she cares
She's sitting on her cloud above
Watching all of those she loves*

We Love and will miss your dearly Aunt/Grandma Shirley!

“ I was sorry to read about the passing of your loved one Shirley. So I wanted to take this time to express my condolence to you. I wanted to share a thought with you that comforted me when I lost a family member in death. The man Job in (Job 14:14) asks" If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?". Happily Jesus answers in (John 5:28,29)-" Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life" Imagine a resurrection back to life and right here on earth.--(Ps.37:29)-"The righteous themselves will possess the earth. And they will reside forever upon it". Well I hope that you will be able to draw some comfort from these scriptural thoughts as I did.
