“ Simone and i were welcomed into First Unitarian Church of Lynchburg at the same Sunday service in 2004. Since then we have shared many happy moments at church, at Alliance meetings and other occasions. I especially remember planning to pick her up at her home to go to a play in Gretna one Sunday afternoon. However, i got lost, and she and Donald came to my rescue. She and I made it to the play and enjoyed it very much. i also enjoyed visiting in their lovely home and surrounding garden -- very natural, beautiful, and woodsy, befitting the work of a Master Gardener. My condolences to her family; I am sorry for your loss. Adieu, Simone.

“ I shared many lunches and garden visits with Simone and two other friends from our Master Gardener class in the 1990s. We were a great foursome and had many happy times together. I remember especially Simone's sense of humor and chuckle, and am sad that she didn't get up to Lynchburg to visit with us lately or to attend First Unitarian Church, where I am also a member. Bon voyage, Simone.
