

Stuart Clay Moorefield

August 4, 1927 - December 5, 2013

Stuart Clay Moorefield, 86, of 1796 Grit Road, Hurt died Thursday, December 5, 2013 at his home. He was the husband of Barbara Rorer Moorefield.

He was born August 4, 1927 in Pittsylvania County, a son of the late Giles and Lena Clay Moorefield. He was a member of Monte Vista Baptist Church, a U.S. Army veteran of the Korean Conflict, and retired from The Lane Company with forty-two years of service.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Sheri Mayhew of Hurt; a sister, Yvonne Bell of Bedford; a granddaughter, Kayla Mayhew Owen and her husband Russell of Penhook; and two great granddaughters, Jacie Marie Mayhew and Madelyn Mae Owen.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Alvin Moorefield; and a sister, Ruth Jackson.

A graveside memorial service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, December 8, 2013 at Green Lawn Cemetery by Elder Joe Motley, the Rev. Chris Stanley, and the Rev. Latta Terry.

The family will receive friends at the residence.

The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider Sheva Church of Christ, Breakfast Club Sunday School Class for Missions, 4920 Chalk Level Rd., Chatham, VA 24531.

“ I was sorry to read about Stuart your loved one. So I wanted to take this time to express my condolence to you. I wanted to share a thought with you that comforted me when I lost a family member in death. The man Job in (Job 14:14) asks" If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?". Happily Jesus answers in (John 5:28,29)-" Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life" Well I hope that you will be able to draw some comfort from these scriptural thoughts as I did.

“ Dear family,

I did not know Stuart personally, but I wanted to express my deepest sympathy. At times like this, I have found Jesus Christ's words at John 5:28,29 to be truly comforting. There he promised that "the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...to a resurrection of life." I look forward to that time so much. However, we still have to deal with the pain we feel right now. When overcome with grief, the Bible tells us to go to God in prayer and it gives the assurance that "He will sustain us." (Ps.55:22) I hope these scriptures will bring you some comfort as they have to me. Feel free to contact me at the email address attached and again I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Sheri and family,
So very sorry to hear this. I loved seeing your Dad when he brought his car in for service and I could pick on him. He was such a nice man. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
