“ I don't remember how we met, but Suzanne and I were teenage friends. I remember hanging out with her at her home. Over the years we lost contact, but I never forget the little blonde girl that was a great friend and a joy to hangout with. I have thought of her often, I just wished I'd tried to contact her and be a good friend in our adult world. Well, maybe we will have that reunion in Heaven. Prayers to all of you. Great childhood memories I won't forget. Climbing the big tree in your front yard, walking to Mr Knights store, running through the cow pasture between your house and Greg's, playing in your mom's beauty shop in the back of your house Rest in Peace my friend. Thoughts and Prayers will your family and friends.

I just can't seem to finish. Sticking my hand in your paper box straight into a wasp nest, spending a week in Pittsville with your aunt and uncle and listening to Only The Lonely on the jukebox in their store and going to GA camp with FBC
