“ Allen, I'm sorry for your loss. Your mom has always been part of our family since we met Glen in school. Y'all lived with us when you were born. Sylvia taught me how to take up for myself and speak my mind. And I do it well. She will live on in you. You will always be my little brother. Love you

“ RIP Sylvia!! I worked with Sylvia at Klopman, she was so funny and an all around good person. She loved her son Alan and was always so proud of him. So very sorry for your loss Alan. I pray for peace and comfort for you and your family in the days, week and months ahead. Alan always know how much your mom loved you, she was so proud of you and how handsome you always were. God Bless you always,
