“ To my beautiful family in Virginia. I am so completely heartbroken for all of us right now. Terry was such a great big brother. He was always there for anyone that needed him. He was so humble and kind, always helping when needed and never once complained about it, ever! I never heard him speak an unkind word about anyone, even when he had reason. Terry was just like that. He was the rock in our family and I feel so weak without him. I know he is flying with the angels right now and I know he is resting in peace with our parents and all the others that have gone on before him. I will miss him so much, as I know everyone will. Time will have to heal our hearts, but if there's one thing I knew about Terry, he would want us all to go on living and celebrating life and making all the memories we can with each other. God bless you, my family. I love you all with a passion and am here anytime you need me.
