“ I just ran into her at Scoops it seems. We spent many hours doing her hair over the years. She was a kind and thoughtful friend. There was no doubt she loved her church family very much. She will be greatly missed.

Thelma was one of the best we went thru school together at Gretna and we both just happened to work together at Klopman Mills. Thelma Jean Updike was a wonderful friend. After I quit working at Klopman I would see her once in a while in Altavista and we would always talk. She was a very sweet and friendly lady. She will be missed by everyone who knew her. Im sure she is in Heaven with our loving savior Jesus Christ.
