“ Velma was a lovely woman who came to see me along with her daughter, Gayle, to get their beautiful nails manicured. One time Velma brought me a jar of her green pepper relish to enjoy along with the recipe. Over the years I tweaked the recipe to suit my family's taste and two years ago I entered it in the Virginia State Fair and won a blue ribbon. To me, it will always be Velma's jar of relish that I loved that started it all. I wish I could've shared that wonderful experience with her but I was able to with Gayle who I still call a friend and client. Fare thee well Velma, I know you are happy to have gone to your glory.

“ A classier act I've never met than Mrs. Velma Hogan. Always so kind, so loving and so concerned for you that upon leaving her presence you felt encouraged and joyful. She shone the light and gave the salt that this world needed while she was with us on earth. Well done, you good and faithful servant. In loving memory, Toni Hargis
