“ So very sorry for your loss. Viola was the most precious woman. I'm so grateful that I had her for a Mother in Law for so many years. The best granny for our children & granddaughter. I have the very best memories at her home on Sundays & holidays. Nobody could make a biscuit like granny. She was the best example of a Christian & her prayers I know we're heard. Find comfort in knowing she is no longer suffering & resting in the arms of the Lord. I know she's holding my "little Preston" until one day we all will be together again. All my love today & the days to come. God bless you all. Love Pam

“ Family,

I am so sorry for the loss of Viola. She was one of the sweetest and kindest ladies I have ever known. I so remember all the wonderful times I visited at your home and how your mama treated me like I was one of her children. She had the most beautiful laugh.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,

Sue (Mitchell) Blackstock
