“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Take comfort in knowing that our heavenly Creator will soon remove all pain, sorrow, and death forever! May this promise as recorded in Revelation 21:3,4 help you gain the strength and inner peace to cope with the days ahead. Philippians 4:13

“ I was sorry to read about the paasing of your loved one Virginia. So I wanted to take this time to express my condolence to you. I wanted to share a thought with you that comforted me when I lost a family member in death. The man Job in (Job 14:14) asks" If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?". Happily Jesus answers in (John 5:28,29)-" Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life" Well I hope that you will be able to draw some comfort from these scriptural thoughts as I did.

Aunt Virginia was a kind loving woman. She had a deep love of the Lord. I think of her often with deep affection.

I didn't know of her passing for several months as I live in CA and only learned when I inquired about the Christmas gift i had sent to her. Rest in peace my dear aunt.
