

Warren James Harman Jr.

November 15, 1955 - September 3, 2025

Warren "James" Harman, Jr., 69, of 710 Bedford Hwy, Lynch Station died Wednesday, September 3, 2025 at his home. He was the Life Partner of Tammie Hodges for thirty-one years.

He was born November 15, 1955 in Lynchburg, a son of the late Warren James Harman, Sr. and Edith Hall Harman. He was a member of Penuel Baptist Church and a retired construction foreman with Moore's Electrical and Mechanical. He was most happy when he was gardening, beekeeping, quail hunting, working with his bird dogs, and taking pride in his lawncare.

He is survived by two sons, Christopher and his wife, Kara of Glen Allen and their children, Kinsley and Kate and Stephen and his wife, Rachel of Mechanicsville and their daughter, Mckinley; one daughter, Heather and her husband, Mike of Duluth, GA and their children, Christofer, Colin and Carly; two sisters, Marie Burton of Evington and Ruth Dalton of Lynch Station; several nieces and nephews; a special niece, Kathy Traylor; and special friends, Jamie and Kim Hodges.

He was preceded in death by two brothers-in-law, Russell Burton and Junior Dalton.

A funeral service will be conducted at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, September 6, 2025 at Lynch Station Baptist Church by the Rev. Scott Doran with interment to follow in Mount Hermon Church Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 6:00 until 7:30 p.m., Friday at Finch & Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista and other times at the residence.
