“ I could spend the rest of my life trying to write down all of the memories and love shared with my uncle d. He was my first best friend. Every birthday party, graduation, vacation or any time I needed him he was there. As a little girl he would take me to toys r us on my birthday and let me pick out a toy or toys because I ‘m not sure uncle d ever told me no. On our family vacations we always got up way before everyone else to take our walk to the beach to find the best seashells and he would walk as long and as far as I wanted and never complained. Then we would walk to the nearest gas station and get my snacks for the day. This was our special time every vacation we ever shared. Uncle d would give you the shirt off of his back and he taught me the definition of unconditional love. He was our protector everywhere we went and would do anything to protect his family. I know he will continue to protect us from heaven and I look forward to seeing him there again one day. I love you uncle d. Thank you for always loving me too. This is not goodbye but until I see you again.
